CIRCULAR

In continuation to Circular dated 24.07.2025, vide which Corporations were directed to accept the online generated challan as proof of delivery for payment related to Excise Duty and not to ask for manual challan from wholesalers.

However, it has been brought to the notice of the department that the payment other than Excise Duty is not being timely paid, by the Corporations, to the Wholesalers until the challan signed by the receiver at vend is submitted to Corporation, as a proof of delivery. The manual signing of the challan is a time consuming process against Government's stated objective of ease of doing business which also leads to undue delay of payment of Excise duty to Wholesalers.

Accordingly, it is once again directed to all the Corporations to accept online generated challan for all payment purpose to wholesalers.
